

Psalm 107, A Place Called Home

G C G Am C Dsus D G C G Am C G
Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, His love is everlasting. O let the redeemed of the LORD say so, redeemed from the hand of their foe
G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
Gathered from lands of east and west, and from the north and south. They roamed through the wild and desert lands; without a Place Called Home.

F C/E G Gsus G F C/E G Am Dsus D
There they were hungry and full of thirst; their soul then fainted within. They cried to the LORD in their distress, Who saved them from their trials.
F C/E F C/E Eb G C Dsus D D2 Dsus D
He also led them by straight paths, to find a Place Called Home. Give thanks to the LORD for His great love, unto the sons of men!

G C G Am C Dsus D G C G Am C G
For He satisfies the thirsty soul, the hungry soul with good. Some dwelt in the dark, and shades of death, those bound in anguish and chains,
G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
For they had rebelled against God's words, and spurned the Most High's voice. He humbled their heart with weariness; they stumbled with none to help.

F C/E G Gsus G F C/E G Am Dsus D
They cried to the LORD in their distress, Who saved them from their trials. Led out of the dark and the shades of death, and broke their bands apart.
F C/E F C/E Eb G C Dsus D D2 Dsus D
Give thanks to the LORD for His great love, unto the sons of men! For He's broken down the gates of bronze, and cut the bars of iron.

G C G Am C Dsus D G C G Am C G
The fools, set on their rebellious ways, were humbled for their sins. Their soul abhorring all kinds of food, approached the gates of death.
G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
They cried to the LORD in their distress, Who saved them from their trials. He sent out His word to heal them, and saved them from their ruin.

F C/E G Gsus G F C/E G Am Dsus D
Give thanks to the LORD for His great love, unto the sons of men! As sacrifice bring thanksgiving, and tell His works in song.
F C/E F C/E Eb G C Dsus D D2 Dsus D
Of those in ships gone to the sea, whose work is on great waters; They've seen the works done by the LORD, His wonders in the deep.

G C G Am C Dsus D G C G Am C G
He spoke then to raise a stormy wind, to lift the waves of the sea. They rose up to heav'n, sank to the depths; their soul in sadness sank.
G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
They reeled and they rocked like drunken men, and were at their wits' end. They cried to the LORD in their distress, Who saved them from their trials.

F C/E G Gsus G F C/E G Am Dsus D
He caused the storm to become still, the ocean's waves were hushed. Then they were glad when it was calm; led to a pleasant harbor.
F C/E F C/E Eb G C Dsus D D2 Dsus D
Give thanks to the LORD for His great love, unto the sons of men! Exalt in the congregation, praise Him in His Home of old.

G C G Am C Dsus D G C G Am C G
He makes of the streams a wilderness, the springs a thirsty ground; makes fruit bearing land a waste of salt, when evil dwells therein.
G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
The desert He turns into a lake, dry land to springs of water; and there He will make the hungry dwell, to build a Place Called Home,

F C/E G Gsus G F C/E G Am Dsus D
To sow their fields and vineyards plant, to bring a fruitful yield. He blesses them so they increase, their herds will never fail.
F C/E F C/E Eb G C Dsus D D2 Dsus D
When they're diminished and bowed down, when hurt, oppressed or grieved, He pours contempt on the princes, who roam a pathless waste.

G C G Am C Dsus D G C G Am C G
But He sets the poor secure on high, away from all their pains, His tribes shall become just like a flock; the just shall see and be glad;
G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
But unrighteousness will shut its mouth. Now where is the one who's wise? Now let him give heed and understand, the kindness of the LORD.

G Am C D G Am Dsus D G C D Am C Gsus G
Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, His love is everlasting. O let the redeemed of the LORD say so, who found a Place Called Home

G C D Am C Gsus G
Yes, let the redeemed of the LORD say so, who found a Place Called Home
