

Psalm 137, By The Rivers Of Babylon

Capo 3rd fret (or 4th): Am G/A D/A e d Am G/A Am (2x)

Am D/A Am Dm/A Am G Em Am a g-a-g f# d e
By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept, when we remembered Zion.

Am D/A Am Dm/A Am G Em Am a g-a-g f# d e
On the willows within her midst, we hung up our harps, yes we hung up our harps.

G Am G/B C E7 Am
There our captors demanded songs, and our mockers laughed as they said, "Now sing us the songs of Zion."

Dm Dm/C G/B E7 E7/G# Am Dm Am G Em Am Am G/A D/A e d Am G/A Am
But how can we sing, O how can we sing, the song of the LORD, in a foreign land?

Am D/A Am Dm/A Am G Em Am a g-a-g f# d e
Should I ever forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget her skill.

Am D/A Am Dm/A Am G Em Am a g-a-g f# d e
And may my tongue then also cling, unto my mouth's roof, If I don't remember you,

G Am G/B C E7 Am
If I do not lift Jerusalem, above my highest joy, above my highest joy.

Dm Dm/C G/B E7 E7/G# Am Dm Am G Em Am Am G/A D/A e d Am G/A Am
For how can we sing, O how can we sing, the song of the LORD, in a foreign land?

Am D/A Am Dm/A Am G Em Am a g-a-g f# d e
LORD, remember how Edom's sons, on the day of Jerusalem, said, "Destroy it right to the ground!"

Am D/A Am Dm/A Am G Em Am a g-a-g f# d e
Daughter of Babylon, destroying one, how blessed who pays you back, with the payment you paid to us,

G Am G/B C E7 Am
O how happy shall that one be, who seizes your little ones, to dash them upon the rock.

Dm Dm/C G/B E7 E7/G# Am Dm Am G Em Am
For how can we sing, O how can we sing, the song of the LORD, in a foreign land?

Dm Dm/C G/B E7 E7/G# Am Dm Am G Em Am Am G/A D/A e d Am G/A Am
For how can we sing, O how can we sing, the song of the LORD, in a foreign land?

Am G/A D/A e d Am G/A Am