

Psalms 142, I Call Out With My Voice

A Maskil (teaching) of David: A prayer when he was in the cave.

I call out with my voice to the LORD; I am pleading with my voice to the LORD. (repeat)

I will pour my concerns out before You; I will speak of my trouble before You.

When my spirit within me was overwhelmed, You understood my path.

In the pathway of my traveling, they had hidden a trap for me.

I call out with my voice to the LORD; I am pleading with my voice to the LORD.

Pay attention to my right and perceive it; there is not even one who regards me;

As for me there is no escape; not a one who cares for my soul.

I called and said, "LORD, You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

I call out with my voice to the LORD; I am pleading with my voice to the LORD.

"Hear my cry, for I am brought very low; save me from my strong assailants.

"Bring my soul up out of this prison, so that I may give thanks to Your name;

O let the righteous encircle me, for You are generous with me."

I call out with my voice to the LORD; I am pleading with my voice to the LORD. (repeat)
