

Psalm 22: My God, My God

1. My God, My God, why have You for - saken me? And why so far from my help and from my groaning voice?
 2. Yet You are ho - ly enthroned on Israel's songs of praise; In You our fathers had faith and You de - livered them.
 3. More like a worm than a man, I am despised and scorned. And all who see me make moc - ker - y and wag their heads.
 4. But from the womb You gave shelter on my mother's breasts. And since my mother bore me You've always been my God.
 5. Like water I'm poured out, and my bones are out of joint. And just like wax my heart melts away with - in my breast.
 6. And just like dogs all these evil men en - circle me. They pierce my hands and my feet; I can count all my bones.

1. O my God, I cry by day but hear no answer, and by night but find no re - lief.
 2. Unto You our fathers cried and were de - livered, and their trust You did not dis - sa - point.
 3. He's committed to the Lord; let Him de - liver. Let Him save, since he de - lights in Him.
 4. Be not far away for trouble is up - on me, and there is not ev - en one to help.
 5. I'm so dry that to my jaws my tongue is clinging, as You lay me in the dust of death.
 6. As they stare at me and gloat, they take my garments, and cast lots to see who'll get my clothes.

- 7 Yet I will tell of Your name to my brethren, and I will praise You in the great congregation. The ends of the

- 7 earth will remember, and all the nations will turn to the Lord.
