

Psalm 33, Rejoice In The Lord O You Righteous

Capo 4th fret (see Ex 15, song of Moses)

G Am7 G/B C Dsus D
Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous; praise befits the upright
D/F# Em Am7 D
Give thanks to the Lord with the lyre; and with the ten-stringed harp
B7 Em A7 D D7
Sing to Him a new song; play with skill and glad shouts
G C/G G C/G
For the word of the Lord is upright; all His works are in faithfulness
G Em Am7 D G C/G G C/G
He loves righteousness and justice; and the earth is full of His love

G Bm C Bm
By the word of the Lord are the heavens, by the breath of His mouth all their host
C Bm Bbadd6 Dsus D
The great waters He heaped up together, in His treasury stored all their depths
G Bm C Bm
O let all of the world stand in awe of Him; and let all of the earth fear the Lord
C Bm Bbadd6 Dsus D
For He spoke and it came into being; He commanded and so it stood forth

Em C G D
The Lord nullifies worldly counsels, and the plans of the nations He voids
Em C G Dsus D
But the counsels of God last forever, for all ages the plans of His heart
Em C G D
O how bless-ed and happy the nation whose God is I AM WHO I AM
Em C G Dsus D
And the people He called as His chosen to be His inheritance
R:

G Bm C Bm
The Lord looks from His place in the heavens, He beholds all the sons of men
C Bm Bbadd6 Dsus D
He who fashioned the hearts of all people, understands the sum of their works
G Bm C Bm
A king will not be saved by his armies, nor a warrior by his great strength
C Bm Bbadd6 Dsus D
For salvation a horse is a false hope, by its power shall no one be saved
Em C G D
But the Lord's eye is on those who fear Him, and on those who take hope in His love
Em C G Dsus D
To deliver their soul out of death, and in famine to keep them alive
Em C G D
For the Lord is our help and our shield; when we trust in His name our heart soars
Em C G Dsus D
O Lord, let Your love now be upon us, because we have hope in You
