

Psalm 38, Do Not Forsake Me

Capo 2nd fret

Am G Am Am2 Am G E7sus E7
Do not forsake me, O Lord; O my God, be not far off
Am G F Em Am Am2 Am
Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation!

Am G/A F/A G/A
Lord, rebuke me not in Your anger, nor chasten me in Your wrath
Am G/A F/A G/A
For Your arrows sink into me, and Your hand has come down on me
F G Gsus G
There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation
F G E7sus E7
There is no health within my bones because of all my sin
R:

Am G/A F/A G/A
My iniquities o'er my head, like a weight too heavy for me
Am G/A F/A G/A
All my wounds grow foul and they fester, because of my foolishness
F G Gsus G
I am bowed down and laid low; all day I go on mourning
F G E7sus E7
My loins are filled with burning; no soundness is in my flesh
R:

Am G/A F/A G/A
I'm completely spent, even crushed, groaning from the war in my heart
Am G/A F/A G/A
Lord, to You is known all my longing, and my sighs are not hid from You
F G Gsus G
My heart throbs and my strength fails me; the light of my eyes gone away
F G E7sus E7
My friends and my companions stand back because of my plague
R:

Am G/A F/A G/A
But for You, O Lord, do I wait; Lord my God, You will answer me
Am G/A F/A G/A
Though I'm set to fail and my pain is ever present in me
F G Gsus G
Iniquity I do confess, I'm sorry for all my sin
F G E7sus E7
My foes are strong and many because I strive for good
R: