

Psalm 79, Will Your Anger Last Forever? (capo 3rd fret)

Am Am
God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance; defiled Your holy temple;
G Em7 Am G/A
They have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

Am Am
They have given the dead bodies of Your servants, for food to the birds of the air,
G Em7 Am G/A
Your saints' flesh to the beasts of the earth.

Am Am
They have poured out their blood just like water, all round Jerusalem;
G Em7 Am
There was not even one to bury them.

Dm Am
We've become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision all around.
Dm E7
How long, O LORD? Is Your anger forever? Will Your jealousy burn like a fire?
Am G Am Am G Am G/A Am G/A
How long, O LORD, how long? Will Your anger last forever?

Am Am
Pour wrath upon the nations which don't know You, on kingdoms never calling on Your name.
G Em7 Am G/A
Eating Jacob, and laying waste his dwelling.

Am Am
Don't remember all our fathers' sins against us; let Your deepest heart now run to us,
G Em7 Am G/A
For we have been brought very low.

Am Am
Give help to us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your holy name;
G Em7 Am
Forgive sins and save for Your name's sake.

Dm Am
Why should people say, "Where is their God?" Make it known among the nations in our sight,
Dm E7
Vengeance for the blood, the blood of Your servants, which has by them been shed.
Am G Am Am G Am G/A Am G/A
How long, O LORD, how long? Will Your anger last forever?

Am Am
Let the groaning of the captives come before You; according to the greatness of Your power
G Em7 Am G/A
Preserve those who are now doomed to die.

Am Am
Repay our neighbors sevenfold within them, the reproaches they have scorned You with, O Lord.
G Em7 Am
But let Your people and pastured sheep give thanks forever;
G Em7 Am G/A Am G/A
And to every generation tell Your praise.
A2 G2
Let us give thanks forever..... Hallelujah! (repeat freely to end)
