

Psalm 9: I Will Give Thanks To The Lord

D-tuning

D C2 G/B C2 D c g c d

I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart

I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart

G A2 D

I will tell of all Your wonders

G A2 D

I will be glad and exalt in You

G A Bm

I will sing praise to Your name

A G A D

O, Most High! O, Most High!

D2 no 3rd

My enemies all have retreated

C

Before You they stumbled and fell

G/B

With justice my case You considered

D2 no 3rd

You sat on the throne with right judgment

You've given reproof to all nations

The name of the wicked erased

In ruins You have left all their cities

Their memory passes away

The Lord sits enthroned for all ages

For judgment His throne is secured

He judges the world in righteousness

And all of the people with justice

REFRAIN

The Lord for the poor is a refuge

A stronghold in times of distress

Those knowing Your name place their trust in You

You never fail those who will seek You

Sing praise to the Lord in Zion

Proclaim to the nations His deeds

Avenger of blood, He remembers the poor

And never forgets when they cry

Be gracious, O Lord, see my trials

Lift me from the strong gates of death

That I may recount all Your praises

In the gates of the daughter of Zion

The nations sink down in the pit they made

Their foot in the net which they hid

The Lord has decreed that the wicked be snared

By the work of his very own hand

The wicked descending to Hades

All nations forgetful of God

But the needy shall not be forgotten

The hope of the poor shall live on

O Lord arise, let not men triumph

Before You let nations be judged

O Lord, let Your fear come upon them

Let nations know they are mere men
